

SUPPORT AND SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT

This Support and Service Level Agreement ("SLA") is made between Greenbyte and the Customer. It governs the levels of service and support that Greenbyte will provide to the Customer.

This SLA should be read in conjunction with the terms of the agreement between Greenbyte and the Customer (the "Agreement"), and capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the same meaning as defined in the GTC.

The SLA was last updated on 21 February 2020. It is effective as of the date of the Customer accepting the SLA.

1 DEFINITIONS

"Agreed Hours of Service" means the hours when the agreed service levels are measured. The Agreed Hours of Service are Monday to Sunday, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

"Agreed Service Availability" means the Availability of the Platform Service agreed between Greenbyte and the Customer as described in clause 2.2 herein.

"Available" or "Availability" means that the Platform Service is available at the Service Delivery Point.

Availability per calendar month is calculated using the following formula: $\text{Availability (\%)} = 100 * (\text{AHS} - \text{PDT} - \text{DT}) / (\text{AHS} - \text{PDT})$

Where AHS = Agreed Hours of Service in minutes; PDT = Permitted Downtime in minutes; and DT = Downtime in minutes except Downtime for which Greenbyte is not responsible as stated under clause 2.3 herein.

An example of the formula's application: Agreed Hours of Service is for 30 days in the month x 24 hours per day: $\text{AHS} = 30 * 24 * 60 = 43200$ minutes. Permitted Downtime (PDT) is 240 minutes. Total downtime is 180 minutes, of which 60 minutes is downtime for which Greenbyte is not responsible: $\text{DT} = 180 - 60 = 120$ minutes. The Availability according to the formula is then: $100 * (43200 - 240 - 120) / (43200 - 240) = 99.72\%$.

"Downtime" means the period of time within the Agreed Hours of Service that the Agreed Service Availability has not been met, less Permitted Downtime and Downtime for which Greenbyte is not responsible as stated under clause 2.3 herein.

"Monthly Fee" means the annual fee for the Platform Service divided by 12.

“Permitted Downtime” means:

- (a) planned service or maintenance performed by Greenbyte, for which the Customer has been informed at least 7 days in advance; or
- (b) other Downtime at the request of the Customer; or
- (c) other Downtime with the Customer's approval.

The number of occasions of Permitted Downtime as referred to in a) above shall not exceed one occasion per week and not exceed 2 hours per week, except where otherwise agreed.

“Service Delivery Point” means the point or points where Greenbyte connects the Platform Service to an external communications network for Customer access, such as the Internet.

“Unavailability” or “Unavailable” means a failure of the Platform Service to adequately receive and respond to valid requests sent to the Service Delivery Point.
